

Sample MBA/ MSDMG question (Multiple choice question) for Trial only (This document contains 4 pages)

Note: Each of the four components shall carry 25% marks

Component I: VERBAL ABILITY

A. CRITICAL REASONING: Read the statements and select the best answer choice to the question presented in bold letters. MARK (●) THE BEST ANSWER CHOICE IN THE ANSWER SHEET. The time allocated for this section (Q. Nos. 1-.....) is minutes.

1. One reason why European music has had such a strong influence throughout the world, and why it is a sophisticated achievement, is that over time the original function of the music—whether ritual, dance, or worship - gradually became an aspect of its style, not its defining force. Dance music could stand independent of dance, for example, and sacred music independent of religious worship, because each composition has so much internal coherence that the music ultimately depends on nothing but itself.

The claims made above are compatible with each of the following EXCEPT:

- I. African music has had a more powerful impact on the world than European music has had.
- II. European military and economic expansionism partially explain the global influence of European music.
- III. The original functions of many types of Chinese music are no longer their defining forces.
- IV. Music that is unintelligible when it is presented independently of its original function tends to be the most sophisticated music.
- V. Some works of art lose their appeal when they are presented to serve a function other than their original one.

B. SENTENCE CORRECTION: The question contains some incorrect sentence parts that are underlined. From the answer choices, select the correct part and MARK (●) THE BEST ANSWER CHOICE IN THE ANSWER SHEET. The time allocated for this section (Q. Nos. 5 -.....) is minutes.
